The VLC Courses

The VLC courses are regular open online courses and materials for Theoretical and Applied Linguistics and beyond. These courses consist of 10 to 15 units (workload ca. 90 to 150 hours), they are certified, they do not involve any fees and they are ready for self-enrolment. Furthermore, they are all supported by the custom chat bot VLC GPT. Each of these courses is ready for full curricular integration.

Theoretical Linguistics

- VLC101 - Linguistic Fundamentals (Introduction)
- VLC102 - Speech Science (Phonetics)
- VLC103 - The Nature of Meaning (Semantics & Pragmatics)
- VLC104 - Words and Word Structure (Morphology)
- VLC105 - Phonetics, Phonology and Transcription
- VLC106 - Syntax: Part I
- VLC107 - Syntax: Part II
- VLC108 - Language Typology
- VLC109 - Phonetics and Phonology
- VLC111 - Linguistics, An Overview
- VLC112 - A Technology-Supported Introduction to Linguistics

- VLC115 - Phonetics, Phonology and Transcription (SPA)
- VLC125 - Phonetics, Phonology and Transcription (DEU)
- VLC135 - Phonetics, Phonology and Transcription (ARA)
- VLC145 - Phonetics, Phonology & Transcription (JAP)

English Linguistics

- VLC201 - The Structure of English
- VLC202 - Historical Linguistics
- VLC203 - The History of English
- VLC205 - Varieties of English
- VLC206 - PDE Morphology and Syntax

Applied Linguistics

- VLC300 - Applied Linguistics
- VLC301 - Psycholinguistics
- VLC302 - Corpus Linguistics Basis
- VLC303 - Corpus Linguistics: Linguistic Applications

- VLC401 - Linguistic Fieldwork Welsh
- VLC402 - Linguistic Fieldwork Japanese
- VLC403 - Linguistic Fieldwork Arabic
- VLC404 - Linguistic Fieldwork Jamaican Creole

Various ("Beyond Linguistics")

- ASTRO 01 – Exploring the Solar System
- EDU21 – 21st Century Education
- ROB101 – RoboTeach (Humanoid Robots in Education)

All users of any of these courses are automatically enrolled to

- VLC100 – Tools and Data, the VLC Glossaries and Databases
- VLC100 – The Language Index, the VLC collection of the languages of the world